At 16 Michelle Ariane joined the professional classical choir at the academic high school Unterstrass in Zurich where she also studied classical, legit and opera for four years. It was here, that she learned the importance of connecting Voice and Body. In 2013 she graduated with a music degree in Zurich, Switzerland.

This meant a new beginning for Michelle Ariane, as she packed up her bags and crossed the ocean to Los Angeles, where she created her own home base. October 2013, she began her studies in Vocal Performance at the LA College of Music (LACM) in Pasadena. There she studied under Tierney Sutton (six-time Grammy nominee), Dorian Holley (Michael Jackson, Rod Steward, James Taylor, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno) and the Singer/ Broadway Performer Kacee Clanton (Beth Hart, Luis Miguel, Joe Cocker, Big Brother and the Holding Company, Musicals; One Night with Janis and Breaking Through). In March 2015 she graduated with Honors from LACM.

After a highly successful international Kickstarter, Michelle Ariane released her first solo record “Beautiful Angel” in the Summer of 2017.
